

Takaya Tours

FIRST NATION CANOE & KAYAK ADVENTURES

Takaya Tours is a premier, cultural tourism business owned by the Tseil-Waututh Nation (TWN) of North Vancouver. Takaya Tours offers a range of safe and exciting activities that mix outdoor adventure with an authentic interpretation of Coast Salish culture. At the core of the business are guided, interpretive paddles in replica ocean-going canoes, similar to those used by the TWN historically. For more information please visit www.takayatours.com.

Programs that we offer only 20 minutes from downtown:

2hr Indian Arm canoe tour-$60/person

Enjoy a cultural interpretive canoe tour while learning about TWN history, legends & songs

2hr Rainforest walking tour-$35/person

Learn about the traditional flora and fauna while understanding the history of TWN

2hr Canoe and Walking split tour-$50/person

For customized tours and groups bigger than 36 people

Kayak cultural tours

For those individual kayak enthusiasts that like a little culture in their tours

In-class Educational tours-$500/per class*new program

Experience on-hands history from out of the classroom text books and learn a bit about Takaya Tours

Paddling in the City tour-$65/person*new program

For customized tours only

4hr Spawning Salmon Tour-$150/person*new program

Enjoy a scenic 30min power boat trip to the end of Indian Arm. There you will experience the nature at its purest and see the salmon spawning while walking in the traditional fishing trails of our ancestors

